Ban Orders

from 6 pm on May 8 till May 10

- Dry days from 6 pm on May 8 till midnight on May 10
- Also, from midnight on May 12 to midnight on May 13

Mysuru, May 6 (BCT)- With just four days left for the Karnataka Assembly elections, the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. Rajendra, who is also the District Electoral Officer, has issued ban orders that will come into force from 6 pm on May 8 and will remain in place till May 10 until the election process ends.

The orders have been issued as per the powers bestowed with the DC under Section 144 of the Cr.PC and will be enforced across the district and the 11 Assembly Constituencies that come under it. Except for the voters of that particular Constituency, others must leave the locality, the order said.

This Section restricts the assembly of more than five people in an area and is typically implemented to prevent a breach of peace. There will be a prohibition on rallies and public meetings or even small meetings. No activities will be allowed within 100 metres of polling booths.

No posters, flex banners or other publicity materials will be allowed near the polling booths. Carrying or storing lethal weapons, swords, knives, sticks, mace, guns, explosives, sharp metal objects, stones and any other objects that could pose a threat to human lives has been restricted. Processions, even if they are on a smaller scale, have also been banned.

Outlets like photocopy shops, book stalls and cyber cafes within 100 metres of the polling booths shall be closed during the election period. These measures have been put in place to maintain the sanctity of the election process and ensure the safety and security of the citizens.

People have been prohibited from burning effigies, public display of cut-outs and the display of faces of leaders.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Our world is holistic; we are all interconnected. Equality and justice should be the uncompromising ideas imbibing within us. Compassion in this perspective is not something like a sacrifice but an elementary act of understanding how things exist in this connected, symbiotic and empathic universe. The rationality of compassion is justified by the holistic and reverential attitude we owe to our universe.

Compassionalism is rationally justified by its cosmological proportion, its value system and its eschatology. It represents a whole religious system, a set of values and a wonderful world-view. This alternative economics is largely based on mutualism, solidarity and altruism.

Among the alternative societies, the Earth and Cosmos are always considered hospitable and benevolent to humankind. Therefore, it is logically assumed that the world we have inherited is stupendous. We are also stupendous and strive to cooperate by seeking its benevolence and blessings. Compassionalism is more relevant in our stressful times when nature's exploitation is the very basis of economic development. This kind of economic system will restore ecological balance, environmental health and mitigate the processes leading to global warming and climate change. This alternative human system — which is an integral ingredient of the natural evolution of the human species — will phenomenally help reconstruct pathways to ecological justice, peace, oneness, tranquility and sustainability. — Vir Singh in The Times of India

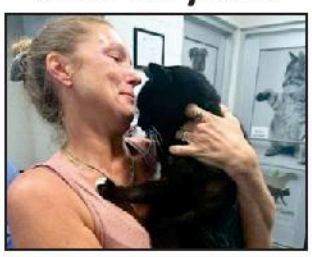
Woman reunited with missing cat after 10 years



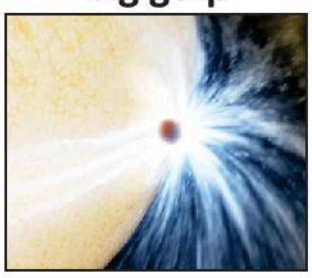
South Carolina: An animal shelter in South Carolina said a lost cat was reunited with his owner after 10 years, thanks to his microchip.

The Charleston Animal Society said a cat recently picked up by animal control officers was scanned for a microchip and identified as Mojo, a feline who went missing 10 years ago from a home.

Mojo's owner, identified as Erin, adopted the cat and another feline named Mahi on the same day, but Mojo fled after the household added a dog that the cat did not care for.

The shelter said Erin "broke down in tears" upon being told that Mojo had been found after a decade. "Erin rushed to Charleston Animal Society to reclaim her boy," the post from the shelter said.

Star swallows planet in one big gulp



Cape Canaveral: For the first time, scientists have caught a star in the act of swallowing a planet — not just a nibble or bite, but one big gulp.

Astronomers on Wednesday reported their observations of what appeared to be a gas giant around the size of Jupiter or bigger being eaten by its star. The sun-like star had been puffing up with old age for eons and finally got so big that it engulfed the close-orbiting planet.

It's a gloomy preview of what will happen to Earth when our sun morphs into a red giant and gobbles the four inner planets.

This galactic feast happened between 10,000 and 15,000 years ago near the Aquila constellation when the star was around 10 billion years old. As the planet went down the stellar hatch, there was a swift hot outburst of light, followed by a long-lasting stream of dust shining brightly in cold infrared energy, the researchers said.

White LED headlight sparks new danger

Sir,

The use of white halogen LED lights in two-wheelers and four-wheelers are becoming popular nowadays due to their bright and intense light.

However, even though the intensity of these lights is below the regulations imposed by Central Motor Vehicles Rules (CMRV) in India, many people are affected by the glare when vehicles with LED headlight pass by in the opposite direction at night. The light will lead to temporary blindness while traveling and can in turn lead to serious road safety issues, especially at night or in low visibility conditions.

To address this issue, vehicle owners need to ensure that their headlights are correctly aimed and adjusted. In addition, it is recommended that they avoid using high beams, which can increase the intensity of the light and cause more glare for other road users, but the riders don't follow either of these rules.

Hence, I request the traffic authorities to strictly enforce the regulations regarding headlight intensity and ensure that all vehicles comply with the standards.

This can help in reducing the number of accidents caused by glare and improve road safety for everyone.

T. Narasipur, May 6- As the ruling BJP aims to turn on the tables against Congress candidate Siddharamaiah in Varuna Assembly segment, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Friday campaigned for party candidates V. Somanna (Varuna) and Dr. Revanna (T. Narasipur). Some parts of T. Narasipur taluk come under Varuna segment.

Bommai began his campaign by offering special prayers at the famed Gunjanarasimhaswamy Temple in the town. During a road show organised as part of the campaign, Bommai lashed out at the Congress.

Highlighting the Government's efforts during the COVID pandemic, Bommai said that Somanna is another name for development and as such the people should elect him from Varuna and Dr. Revanna from T. Narasipur.

Terming the Congress guarantee card as bogus, Bommai said that the Congress was giving false assurances to the people in the hope of coming to power. Asserting that the Congress would lose the polls, the CM asked the BJP workers to carry out door-to-door campaign against the misdeeds of the Congress and its bogus claims. He also maintained that Somanna would create history by defeating former CM Siddharamaiah in Varuna.

Pointing out that actors Sudeep and Darshan have campaigned for the BJP taking note of the party's achievements, he appealed the T. Narasipur voters to see the change by electing the BJP candidate Dr. Revanna.

Varuna candidate and Housing Minister V. Somanna said that he was shocked to find out that Varuna, which was represented by Siddharamaiah for two terms, lacked basic amenities, despite being the home Constituency of the former CM. Noting that he has come to the Constituency following the directions of the BJP High Command, Somanna appealed the people to give him a chance and see what development really means.

Actor Sudeep fails to turn up

Actor Sudeep, who was supposed to campaign by holding a road show for T. Narasipur BJP candidate Dr. Revanna yesterday afternoon after the CM's event in the town, failed to turn up, which disappointed his fans and the huge gathering lined up along the road sides to have a glimpse of the popular actor. Thousands of people had gathered in the vicinity of Gunjanarasimhaswamy Temple in anticipation of the actor's visit. But the announcement that Sudeep would not be coming, came as a big disappointment for them, following which some in the gathering raised slogans against the BJP.

B.Y. Vijayendra seeks votes for C.H. Vijayashankar in Periyapatna

'Strengthen the hands of PM Modi by bringing BJP back to power in Karnataka'

Periyapatna, May 6 (TRR)- State BJP Vice-President B.Y. Vijayendra has opined that the Congress party, which is losing its presence across the country, will also soon become irrelevant in Karnataka. "The people's verdict to be announced on May 13 will prove Congress party's irrelevance in the State," he added.

He was speaking at an election meeting of the party organised at the town's Mahalakshmi Kalyan Mantap yesterday and sought votes for BJP candidate C.H. Vijayashankar.

"B.S. Yedirurappa is spearheading the election campaign of the BJP across the State traversing, despite his old age. Though he resigned as the Chief Minister, Yediyurappa is trying his best to bring BJP back to power again in the State. As Chief Minister, he implemented many programmes like Bhagyalakshmi, Sandhya Suraksha, Vidyasiri and others for the poor and the downtrodden," said the BJP Vice-President.

Lauding the enormous contributions of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to the nation during the COVID period, Vijayendra appealed voters to strengthen the hands of Narendra Modi by bringing the BJP back to power in the State. Ensure the victory of BJP candidate Vijayashankar with a big margin, exhorted Vijayendra.

BJP candidate C.H. Vijayashankar, who also spoke, appealed the voters saying, "Give me a chance to serve you and I will develop Periyapatna as a model Constituency."

Taluk BJP President M.M. Rajegowda, former MLA Basavaraj, leaders Kautilya Raghu, P. Prashanthgowda, Somashekar, Rajendra and others were present at the meeting.

KR BJP candidate Srivatsa steps up campaign

Mysuru, May 6- With just two days to go for public canvassing to come to an end (May 8), Krishnaraja (KR) BJP candidate T.S. Srivatsa has stepped up campaigning by criss crossing the Constituency to reach out to the voters.

On Friday, Srivatsa held poll campaign at Ittigegud coming under MCC Ward 52 and sought votes.

During the course of his campaign, Srivatsa highlighted the achievements of PM Modi and the State Government headed by CM Bommai. He appealed the electorate to give a full majority to the BJP this time and thus further strengthen the hands of PM Modi.

Corporator Chayadevi, former Corporator Vanitha, party leaders Gokul Govardhan, Janardhan, Hoysala, Prasanna, Vinay, Nitin and others were present.

'Wave of change has started blowing in Chamundeshwari'

BJP candidate V. Kaveesh Gowda

By S. B. Devaraj

Kaveesh Gowda is a first-time candidate for the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in the Chamundeshwari Assembly Constituency and the upcoming Legislative Assembly election, scheduled for May 10, is his debut election. Despite this, he is leaving no stone unturned in his campaign efforts, engaging in intense canvassing and receiving an overwhelming response from the people.

Kaveesh comes from a family with a political background, as his father Vasu is the former MLA of Chamaraja Constituency. In terms of academics, Kaveesh holds a Bachelor of Engineering (BE) degree from Visvesvaraya Technological University (VTU) in Belagavi, an LLB from Karnataka State Law University (KSLU) and a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Cardiff University in the United Kingdom.

In addition to his legal practice, 40-year-old Kaveesh is successfully managing educational institutions as the Secretary of Vidya Vikas Educational Trust (VVET). Despite being new to politics, Kaveesh has spoken about numerous issues in Chamundeshwari Constituency, including people's responses, with Star of Mysore, showing his determination to brave the political weather. Excerpts:

V. Kaveesh Gowda

Star of Mysore (SOM): You have got an opportunity to contest the elections for the first time. Your reaction?

Kaveesh: Yes, with the clear intention of bringing effective changes by grooming more youngsters, the BJP has zeroed in on me and I am happy about that. Prime Minister Narendra Modi believes that if the youths get an opportunity, they will be crusaders against corruption.

Moreover, if professionals are engaged in active politics, they will strive to reach all the benefits of the Government to the people, showing their concern for the hoi polloi. I am grateful to BJP National and State-level leaders and all the voters of the Constituency, where I was particular about taking the electoral plunge.

SOM: How is the voter response in Chamundeshwari?

Kaveesh: The response is good and the wave of change has started blowing in the Constituency, as even voters are insisting on bringing a change. BJP has never won elections in Chamundeshwari Constituency, but the voters are pledging their support to the party this time. The voters are also aware of my academic strength and successful career as an educationist and participating in various activities along with my father from grassroots level.

The people have enormous faith in me, upon seeing which I am also happy. There is a feeling among the voters that this youth is development-oriented and is keen to implement the schemes of Central and State Governments.

SOM: Are you aware of the issues in the Constituency?

Kaveesh: Yes, the lack of adequate infrastructural facilities is visible in any village or locality in the Constituency. Even the people have been airing grievances related to potable drinking water, underground drainage and the pathetic condition of lakes, to list a few. I grew up amid people and am well aware of the issues and also know the solutions to them.

SOM: If you win, what will be the first priority?

Kaveesh: My first priority will be to provide adequate basic infrastructural facilities to all, as it is impossible to develop the Constituency by neglecting the basic requirements of the people. Apart from this, I will effectively work towards providing jobs, education, health and conservation of the environment.

SOM: What are the issues that the voters have been raising during your campaign?

Kaveesh: The main issues that the voters have been raising are the lack of adequate infrastructural facilities, such as inadequate underground drainage network, poor garbage collection and disposal and contamination of lakes due to the free flow of sewage water. There are also issues related to the supply of drinking water, unhygienic conditions leading to the threat of diseases and poor-quality education in Government schools and colleges.

SOM: What promises have you made to the voters during your campaign?

Kaveesh: My promises to the voters include providing adequate drinking water, improving the UGD network, ensuring good roads and other basic amenities, setting up more government institutions for quality education, establishing a hospital with hi-tech facilities, and creating job opportunities. I have also emphasised the importance of fighting against corruption, promoting equal opportunities for men and women and providing training to the youths to help them become self-reliant.

SOM: Have you used any tactics to woo young voters?

Kaveesh: As a young candidate myself, I have stressed on the need to build a better society based on honesty and values and to fight against corruption. I have urged young voters not to sell their votes for money, but to work together to bring about positive changes. I have also highlighted the importance of providing equal opportunities to men and women, and creating a conducive environment for job creation and self-reliance.

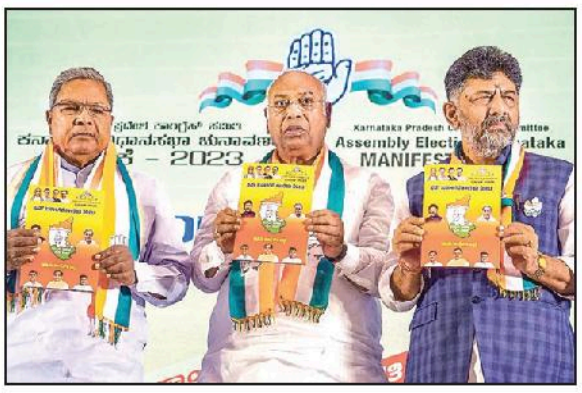
Manifesto? Meh!



Every year on the 25th of January, the Election Commission of India (ECI) releases advertisements asking voters to take a pledge which is to be an honest voter. That elaborate pledge seems redundant as I watch the caste and cash politics being played out before us.

This year, the Election Commission has stated that there has been a seven-fold increase in illegal election spending compared to 2018.

This election, alcohol distribution has surged more than 51 times while narcotics distribution has risen more than 18 times.

Where is all this money to buy votes coming from? Very simple: Steal from the 'tax-paying Peter' to pay 'vote-selling Paul.'

Sadly, Income Tax-paying salaried middle-class don't mind being exploited. If tax-payers read the manifestos, they will realise the absurdity of some schemes and how their money is being spent.

But before you read the manifesto, if you have a weak heart, please keep a defibrillator and someone who knows how to use it next to you; the promises in the manifesto are that shocking.

Within minutes of starting to read the BJP manifesto, I had to hold my chest. The BJP manifesto states that it will make Karnataka so prosperous that it will be like the Vijayanagar Empire, where rubies were sold on the streets! Additionally, it plans to make Karnataka a 1 trillion-dollar economy by 2031!

Their names of schemes are grand. One is called 'Mission Wodeyar.' It has a fund allocation of Rs. 3,000 crore and its mission is to desilt 17 rivers and 500 lakes and create aquafarms.

Then there is the Puneeth Rajkumar Film City in Mysuru. There is a mission to connect Karnataka, under which Mysuru will get metro rail! And the best part is — exemption of registration and road tax for electric vehicles! All good, but will it happen?

The BJP, as expected, has promised implementation of the Uniform Civil Code and a new Police wing called — Karnataka State Wing against Religious Fundamentalism and Terror (K-SWIFT).

Speaking of K-SWIFT, they have another 'K' scheme: The BJP has promised a 'K-Agri Fund' to establish micro-cold storage and other initiatives. The budget for these 'other initiatives' is Rs. 30,000 crore.

Then, there is the pilgrimage grant of Rs. 25,000 and the promise of forming a committee to bring autonomy to temples. We wonder what stopped them from doing it in the last couple of years when they were in power. As usual, it is loaded with social schemes from free rice to loan waiver.

The Congress' early promise in its manifesto is "to abolish corruption in public works and create a transparent system." I found myself holding my chest again.

Then they promise to invest Rs. 50,000 crore over 5 years to improve facilities in villages. What facilities? They want to provide toilets, water, health, education and roads!

What have all the parties been doing for the last 75 years if basic necessities — clean water, toilet, health, education and roads — are still on a manifesto in 2023?!

For women, there is the promise of Rs. 2,000 per month to every woman head of the family and free bus travel for women throughout the State. There is also an interest-free loan for women to buy two cows.

Interestingly, the party has also promised to establish 'manure' centres where the Government will buy cow-dung for Rs. 3 per kg!

Then there is the 'Yuva Nidhi' scheme, where Congress has promised to give Rs. 3,000 per month for unemployed graduates and Rs. 1,500 a month for unemployed diploma holders for 2 years!

What kind of a scheme is this in the name of social security? Instead of investing in job creation by helping industries with KIADB land and easing interest rates so youths are not jobless, the plan is to dole out pocket money?

The Karnataka tax-payer may end up paying for the salary of party workers instead. Doesn't Congress know that we have a vast unregulated economy where people are paid in cash which means youngsters will collect their salary in cash and also collect this Government dole out?

Political parties have a bad habit of giving fish instead of teaching people how to fish. This is their way of making people forever dependent on them.

Two interesting projects that baffle us in the Congress manifesto are, first the plan to spend Rs. 40 crore for a Kashmir Cultural Centre!

Surprisingly, while it is allocating Rs. 40 crore for Kashmir Cultural Centre, for the few people from a faraway State, they have allocated just Rs. 1 crore each for Kodava, Konkani and Beary communities who are Kannadigas!

Second, is Congress' plan to create a separate Ministry for Non-Resident Indian (NRI) Kannadigas! This Ministry, they say, will have a revolving fund of Rs. 1,000 crore. For what? Well, to help NRI Kannadiga entrepreneurs set up shop in Karnataka and also help NRIs who want to return home! What kind of scheme is this? Why must we poorer cousins pay for the relocation of the rich NRIs?!

The JD(S), too, speaks of the work done by the father of their party, H.D. Deve Gowda and sons, and it promises very similar schemes to the other two, albeit a more farmer-inclined one.

Conversely, the AAP is short and shallow, like the mock manifesto framed by a high school civics student. The manifesto is one page. Just 10 categories with around 5 promises under each. THE END. No grand pretentious schemes and no umpteen schemes. That's alright, but there are no details and that's not how a 'national' party's manifesto should read.

Congress has the most elaborate manifesto of all the parties with micro-level attention. But they are also the party that has really over-promised. It seems like they wanted to fulfil every citizen's wish, from a farmer to a gig-economy worker to a wannabe Kannada poet to an NRI.

The 2023 manifestos show that none of the parties has thought it through. They are not sure how much they will spend on what and why. There is no prioritisation at all. Most schemes seem to be designed for appeasement and ROI — Return On Investment — to get 10-fold the money they spent to win elections.

When most voters are prejudiced because of their religion and opportunism, when most votes today are cash and carry, manifestos are almost irrelevant.

This being the case, there is very little that the Election Commission can do. But for now, it can try to frame rules to force the urban voter to the voting booth instead of a toll booth as they make their way to the Expressway for a holiday on the Election Day.

PM Modi's magic won't work in State: Siddu

Mysuru, May 6 (PM&BS)- Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Assembly and former CM Siddharamaiah has said that "Prime Minister Narendra Modi's magic won't work on voters in favour of the BJP in poll-bound Karnataka."

He was speaking to media persons during an interaction organised by Mysuru District Journalists Association (MDJA) at Patrakarthara Bhavana in the city this morning.

Answering to media queries, Siddharamaiah said, "The State BJP lacks morality to seek votes and hence the party is under the illusion that the frequent visits of PM Modi on road shows will propel its prospects. Barring local issues on the basis of which the votes are cast, no other issues will have a bearing on voters."

The ruling BJP Government is facing anti-incumbency and the people have resolved to reject the current dispensation and bring back Congress Government to power with absolute majority, said Siddharamaiah, who is contesting from Varuna Assembly Constituency in Mysuru district this time, after a gap of five years.

NEET trouble

To a question on the possibilities of aspirants of National Eligibility Cum Entrance Test (NEET) facing trouble due to Modi's road shows in Bengaluru today and tomorrow, Siddharamaiah, who refused to comment on the High Court order (giving permission for road show over a PIL filed against the event), said "The PM can postpone his event for a day, but students cannot avoid NEET. Who can be held responsible if the students are affected?"

Union Minister of State for Agriculture and Farmers Welfare Shobha Karandlaje has said the students appearing for NEET should come a day in advance and stay overnight in Bengaluru. But, is it possible for poor students? he asked.

Coming down heavily on BJP Government in the State, Siddharamaiah said "It's been four years since BJP is holding reins, but no new housing units are sanctioned. When I was in power, 15 lakh housing units were built for needy. Even the quantum of rice distributed to BPL card holders is cut down. The State is reeling under debt touching Rs. 5,64,000 crore against Rs. 2,42,000 crore in 2018, up by Rs. 3,12,000 crore."

Even at the national level, the rate of debt has touched Rs. 1.55 lakh crore, taking the country towards bankruptcy. Starting from independence till Dr. Manmohan Singh became the Prime Minister in 2004, the debt was Rs. 53,11,000 crore, alleged Siddharamaiah.

Congress has made several promises in the manifesto released ahead of elections and the PM is sceptical over pooling in enormous resources to implement them. However, the Prime Minister should understand that every year the size of budget increases by Rs. 30,000 crore and by avoiding debt and paying the rate of interest, the resource saved can be utilised on realising the promises made.

Varuna fight

On his contest in Varuna that has turned into a high-octane electoral fight, Siddharamaiah said, though being a sitting MLA of Badami in Bagalkot district, he chose to contest from Varuna this time respecting the opinion of majority of his followers. The voters of Varuna have never practiced casteism and will vote as per their conscience. "I won the elections in Varuna in 2008 by a margin of 28,000 votes," said Siddharamaiah dismissing the possible effect of any plots of rival BJP.

BJP leader joins Congress

Former BJP Corporator H.S. Nandeesh Preetham, son of former Chamaraja MLA late H. S. Shankarlinge Gowda defected to Congress in the presence of Siddharamaiah today.

MDJA President S.T. Ravikumar, City Vice-President Anurag Basavaraj, General Secretary M. Subramanya and others were present.

Brisk campaign by Nagendra

Chamaraja BJP candidate L. Nagendra held a brisk poll campaign at Subbarayanakere Grounds this morning and sought votes from people. Corporator Pramila Bharath, former Corporator Prashanth Gowda and other BJP leaders accompanied the MLA.

Curtain comes down on 'Chinnara Mela'

Children playing with water colours as a part of the 'Bannada Okuli' organised to mark the valedictory of 25-day Chinnara Mela at Rangayana yesterday.

Mysuru, May 6 (CN&BS)- Kannada and Culture Department Director P. Vishwanath Hiremath said: "With the thrust on making summer vacations meaningful and packed with entertainment to encourage creativity among children, Rangayana has been providing a platform every year by organising Chinnara Mela. The intention is to prevent children from becoming mobile phone addicts that spoil their future, as apart from learning, the children should be made abreast of entertainment matters."

Hiremath spoke during the valedictory of Chinnara Mela Summer Camp, under the slogan 'Nammee Tainela' (Our Motherland) at Vanaranga in Rangayana premises here yesterday. "For namesake, it's the valedictory of Chinnara Mela, but it has turned into an occasion for the participants to appreciate each other. It's a normal practice to discuss about drawbacks during valedictory ceremony, but here there is no room to rewind the past, but discuss about children's area of interest that has made the summer camp successful," asserted Hiremath.

Quoting theatre doyen B.V. Karanth, theatre person H.S. Umesh said, "Growing is like becoming a kid and one without a child like mind, cannot become a complete artiste. I have never seen a meaningful summer camp like the one organised by Rangayana across the world."

Deputy Director of Rangayana Nirmala Mathapati and Director of Chinnara Mela Summer Camp Krishnakumar Narnakaje were present.

Kids turn vendors at Chinnara Santhe

About 300 children had enrolled for Chinnara Mela annual summer camp conducted by the repertory and 100 children among them had set up make-shift stalls selling food items to leaves, vegetables, indigenously made toys, paintings, cosmetics among several others to learn various nuances of the market.

To beat summer heat, most of the children did a brisk vending selling various flavours of juice made of jaggery, buttermilk, mango and musk melon, at Rs.

10 per glass. Even the bunch of vegetables like potato, carrot, onion and beans were sold at Rs. 10.

Deputy Director of Rangayana Nirmala Mathapati inaugurated the Mela by buying a bunch of leaves and said: "The children are happily taking part in the fair to get a hands-on experience on trading. Our's is agriculture-based country and hence, more priority is given for farm produces. Both the parents and children are happy with the fair."

H.V. Ujwal, who is participating in the summer camp, said: "It's for the first time I am participating in the camp and have been practicing acting, music and dance. By being a part of the fair, I also gained skills on how to sell the products."

Sindhu, a parent, said: "The children are attending the camp on their own interest and have never said no even for a day. Daily they are eager to share their experiences at the camp, with parents at home."

Governor flags off Nursing team to Himalayas

Mysuru, May 6- Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot flagged off the Vision-2023, an exclusive expedition for the nursing fraternity of Karnataka, organised by Tiger Adventure Foundation (TAF) in association with Diya Foundation and Ladies Circle India, on May 3 at Raj Bhavan in Bengaluru.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor wished the team a happy and safe adventure and congratulated the organisers for the gesture.

The nursing section of the medical field gets the last appreciation for the selfless service rendered and this event has been planned as a token of gratitude to the nursing community. The year 2023, incidentally, marks the 203rd birth anniversary of Florence Nightingale, the 70th year of the first ascent to Mount Everest and completion of 75 years of India's Independence.

It is a happy coincidence that the TAF is going to celebrate the success stories of nurses in the Himalayas by ascending Mt. Chandrakhani Pass and Mt. Rumtu top which is at a height of 14,000 ft., in Himachal Pradesh.

The expedition will be held between May 5 and 18, 2023 and the team is expected to summit on May 12. It will be a historic day when a team of twelve nurses from Karnataka celebrates the 'International Day of Nurses' on the Himalayan range at an altitude of 14,000 feet. The team left for Delhi yesterday (May 5) and will travel further to Himachal Pradesh.

The team will report at Chheti Base camp and is likely to stay at various camps like Kashadra, Maticochher, Dohra, Chaklani and Sterlin. The nurses are expected to visit New Delhi, Amritsar and Manali too.

The cost of project is about Rs. 8 lakh which is raised through crowd-funding and partnered with Ladies Circle India and Diya Foundation.

The expedition team is led by A. Anil Kumar, an ace adventure enthusiast of Mysuru city and ably assisted by Punitha Nagaraj, an ardent adventure enthusiast of Mysuru, under the able guidance of DSD Solanki, Chairman of TAF.

The programme is coordinated by R. Santosh, Hon. Secretary of TAF, Cr. Anchal Khurana of Ladies Circle India and Namratha Shenoy, Founder-Trustee of Diya Foundation.

At Vidhana Soudha in Bengaluru, Dr. Shalini Rajneesh Goel, Additional Chief Secretary, Ministry of Sports and Youth Affairs, also wished the team by signing on the expedition flag.

S. Ravi, ADGP and Principal Secretary, Home Department, Government of Karnataka, also joined the occasion.

Siddu accused of scuttling Dalit leadership

Mysuru, May 6 (SPN&DM)- Accusing former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah of scuttling Dalit leadership in the Congress, Chamarajanagar BJP MP V. Sreenivasa Prasad said that the former CM has finally chosen to contest from his home Constituency after conducting a hectic search for other safe Constituencies for him elsewhere in the State.

Addressing the BJP poll rally in Varuna Assembly segment, organised by BJP SC Morcha at Srilakshmi Kalyana Mantap in Nadanahalli, Sreenivasa Prasad exuded confidence that the BJP would retain power in the State by winning with a comfortable majority.

Pointing out that he has suggested PM Modi to pay special attention to the status of Dalit communities once the Assembly polls are over, he accused the Congress of doing little for the upliftment of Dalits. Charging Siddharamaiah of being a selfish politician, he said that the former Congress CM had nixed the chances of a Dalit leader becoming the Chief Minister when the Congress was in power.

Maintaining that he has come up in politics in phases extending over five decades, he asserted that he would not bow to anyone. Stating that AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge, who lost the 2019 Lok Sabha polls, is an opportunist politician and was not involved in any struggles, he said that Kharge would not survive in politics without power.

BJP SC Morcha President C.M. Mahadevaiah, former IAS officer and actor K. Shivaram, party leaders K.P. Siddalingaswamy, Vijaykumar, Sadananda, Guruswamy, Prakash, Rajendra, Arakalawadi Nagendra, Narasimhamurthy, Varahalli Nagendra, Sridhar Shivaiah, Manju, Anandaraju, Balaraju, Narasimhamurthy and others were present.

Mysuru, May 6 (MK&DM)- JD(S) Legislature party leader H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) has appealed the electorate of Chamundeshwari Constituency to ensure the victory of JD(S) candidate G.T. Devegowda (GTD) by a huge margin.

Holding mega road shows at Rammanahalli, Udbur, Bogadi, Hinkal, Hootagalli, Koorgalli, Belavadi and Yelwal, coming under Chamundeshwari Constituency, on Friday, HDK said that the JD(S) has gained popularity among the masses through Pancha Ratna programmes. Appealing the people to elect GTD and thus ensure that the JD(S) forms the Government, he asserted that the Constituency has been a party stronghold for over a decade.

Highlighting the JD(S) promises that has been included in the party's manifesto, HDK said that both the national parties — BJP and Congress — had failed to deliver. Charging that the two parties had failed on all fronts while in power, he wanted the people to give a chance to the JD(S) with absolute majority and see the real change in administration. Chamundeshwari candidate GTD and Hunsur candidate G.D. Harish Gowda too addressed the crowds.

The Police and other security agencies had a hard time in controlling the gathering, as a large number of people tried to have a close glimpse at HDK and GTD.

Former Mayor M.J. Ravikumar and others were present.

H.D. Deve Gowda says his son HDK will take oath as CM on May 18 !

H.D. Deve Gowda

Belur, May 6- Even as the poll campaign has reached peak with just two days to go for public canvassing, JD(S) Supremo and former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda, in a surprising assertion, said that his son H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK), who is contesting from Channapatna, would take oath as the CM on May 18.

Addressing JD(S) poll rallies at Sakaleshpur, Belur, Arasikere and other parts of Hassan district on Friday, Deve Gowda slammed Congress and BJP for giving false assurances to the people just ahead of the Assembly polls. Maintaining that the people of the State would teach a lesson to the two national parties (Congress and BJP), he contended that JD(S) was sure of coming to power in the State and HDK would take oath as the next CM on May 18.

"I have been campaigning for JD(S) even in my ripe age in order to save the regional party. The State needs a regional party like JD(S) in order to ensure implementation of projects such as Mekedatu and Mahadayi. I have fought for the rights of Karnataka as an MP and though BJP had 18 MPs from the State then, I did not get the support what I wanted from them," he said adding that Congress and BJP had failed to read the pulse of the people.

Dry days for four days

Mysuru, May 6 (BCT)- The Assembly election and counting will together bring a total of four dry days on May 8, May 9, May 10 and May 13. Serving and selling of liquor will be banned in all establishments within the polling area during the period of 48 hours, ending with the hour fixed for the conclusion of polling.

The purpose of the dry days is to ensure a peaceful, free and fair election. The dry days will be enforced from 6 pm on May 8 until 12 midnight on May 10 (the day of voting) and from midnight on May 12 to midnight on May 13 (the day of vote counting). During this period, all liquor and wine shops, bars, restaurants, clubs and other licence holders selling liquor in the district will remain closed, and there will be no sale, distribution or stocking of liquor.

District Electoral Officer Dr. K.V. Rajendra has utilised Section 135C of the 1951 Act to declare dry days and has directed the Excise Deputy Commissioner of Mysuru City and Rural to seal all liquor and wine shops, bars, restaurants, clubs and other licensed premises selling alcohol. The keys are to be handed over to the Executive Magistrate.

Paid holiday

The Election Commission has asked the Central and State Government to grant a paid holiday to all workers on May 10, while noting that daily wagers, those working in shops and establishments are also entitled to the benefit. "Even those electors, including casual workers, outside the Constituency concerned would be entitled to the benefit of a paid holiday.

Ban Orders from 6 pm on May 8

Open canvassing in favour of any leader through songs, music and group performances favouring any political party or a candidate has been barred. Transportation and storage of explosives in quarries are prohibited during the election period.

Supporters of parties and candidates and the general public have been barred from making defamatory speeches or playing songs or carrying symbols and signs that result in the character assassination of the rival candidates. In other words, any activity that will disturb public peace and the tranquillity of the polling station has been banned.

The restrictions, however, will not be applicable for any procession to cremate or bury the dead, religious processions and COVID-related activities. Even the Police, election officers and the allied staff working to ensure a smooth election have been exempted from restrictions. The exemption has been accorded as long as they comply with the Model Code of Conduct.

The area around 100 metres of the polling booth is declared sensitive and carrying of mobile phones, cordless phones, satellite phones or any electronic items has been restricted except in the case of officers and staff who have special permission and who are authorised to do so.

Any violations will be strictly dealt with as per the provisions of law, the DC said. In a related order, the DC has also postponed all kinds of shandies, jatras and festivals that have been scheduled on May 10, the polling day. This is to ensure smooth polling and to maintain order as per the directives issued by the Election Commission of India.

Congress is certain to return to power in State: MP Jairam Ramesh

Mysuru, May 6 (PM&DM)- Maintaining that the people of Karnataka are fed up with the 40 percent Commission BJP Government, Rajya Sabha Congress MP and former Union Minister Jairam Ramesh asserted that it is certain that the Congress would return to power in the State, going by the latest trend.

Addressing a press meet at Pathrakartara Bhavan here yesterday, Jairam Ramesh said that the Congress sensed a victory in the State months ago when Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra passed through the State.

"The five guarantees promised by the Congress has rattled the BJP, which is mired in corruption and maladministration. PM Modi and other BJP leaders are harping on 'Double Engine' Mantra, which is nothing but a farce, aimed at fooling the people. The people are so fed up with the current dispensation that they are just waiting for the polling day to throw the corrupt BJP Government out of power," he said.

Pointing out that the Congress party's poll manifesto has a clear vision about region-wise development of the State, he said that PM Modi, Union Home Minister Amit Shah, BJP National President J.P. Nadda and other top BJP leaders are making frequent trips to the State out of real concerns that the party is going to lose power.

More than working for the people, the BJP leaders including PM Modi are engaged only in campaigning, which is a wasteful exercise as BJP is certain to lose the polls.

Replying to a question on whether the reservation hike would benefit the BJP, the senior Congress leader said it is only a poll gimmick played by the BJP.

Govt. hospitals OPD slips to have voting message

Mysuru, May 6 (BCT)- Taking forward the unique initiatives by the Mysuru District Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) Committee in its attempts to draw the maximum number of people to the polling booths on the day of voting, the District Health Department has asked its staff to provide medical aid to all the polling booths at Taluk level.

In a communication, District Health Officer (DHO) Dr. K.H. Prasad has stated that all Out Patient Department (OPD) slips must carry the message of mandatory voting. The OPD slips will contain a printed message on the voting right and duty.

In addition, taluk-level health officers and teams have been asked to visit the check-posts at least once a day and examine the staff who are doing round-the-clock duty. In all, 54 check-posts have been established across Mysuru.

The health officers have been asked to ensure the presence of health kits, first-aid kits and ORS sachets at all the polling stations. Each polling station has to be accounted for. Also, teams must be formed along with the doctors of Rashtriya Bal Swasthya Karyakram (RBSK) to visit each polling booth and provide emergency services if need be.

The Taluk Health Officer has the responsibility of visiting all the jurisdictional polling booths on May 9 and May 10. All the doctors and paramedical staff are expected to be stationed at the headquarters and must ensure that there is no disruption of service even during nights.
